

Outside Sales Position:

Our products as well as clients are within the Ceramic & Stone tile industry. Our areas of coverage are Northern and Southern California. Our products are typically imported from Italy and Spain. They are towards the higher end of the market and are selected for their uniqueness and high quality.

You must be self motivated, organized and come with an innate quality for customer service. Integrity and reliability means everything in this business. This is not the job for you if your past experience does not reflect these qualities.

Direct experience in the tile industry is not a must, however it is an advantage. Obviously a clean driving record is important as our insurance requirements are strict. We are a great company to work for where a positive culture of support exists to aid in your growth within the industry.

Compensation: Base salary+Commission+Full Benefit Package
